1. Introduction
2. Applications
3. Limitations and Conditions

1. Introduction:

- a. The Capitol Complex Event Coordinator, Office of Facilities and Property Management (OFPM), Department of Administration is the reservation/information center for events in the Capitol Complex.
- b. The Statehouse is a historic landmark and focal point of State government in Kansas. Hundreds of scheduled events take place at the Statehouse and it attracts over 100,000 visitors annually. Your cooperation and compliance with this Policy for Usage of the Statehouse and Capitol Complex will ensure you have a successful event/activity. Our goal is to preserve the historic beauty of the Statehouse and Capitol Complex and to ensure the safety of visitors and employees.
- c. OFPM controls use of the areas inside the Statehouse on the Ground Level, 1st Floor, 2nd Floor, Statehouse Grounds and other State owned buildings within the Capitol Complex. Use the on-line application on the OFPM website (www.admin.ks.gov/offices/ofpm) to submit an application for use of space in the above mentioned areas. The Event Coordinator can be contacted at 785-296-7909.
- d. The Director of Legislative Administrative Services (LAS) controls the use of other areas inside the Statehouse (Legislative Chambers, 3rd, 4th, and 5th floors, Legislative Committee Rooms and other space that is managed by the Legislature). Applications for this space must be submitted to Legislative Administrative Services, Statehouse, Room 549-S or call 785-296-2391 for information.
- e. The Kansas State Historical Society is responsible for booking the Auditorium or Classroom areas on Ground Level. Applications for this space must be submitted to the Historical Society. The application is located at <http://www.kshs.org/p/facilityuse-kansas-state-capitol/19178> . Questions can be directed to the Tour Guides at 785-296-3966.
- f. Commercial activity within the Capitol and on the Statehouse Grounds is prohibited.
- g. Event must relate to a governmental purpose.
